

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

¹ Lord Gough served at the capture of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Dutch Fleet in Saldanha Bay, 1795. Served afterwards in the West Indies, including the attack on Porto Rico, the brigand war in St. Lucia, and capture of Surinam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1800, and commanded the 57th at the battles of Talavera, Barrosa, Vittoria, and Nivelle, for which engagements he has received a Gold Cross. He also commanded the Regiment at the defence of Cadiz and of Tarifa (slightly wounded in the head). At the battle of Talavera his horse was shot under him, and he himself was afterwards severely wounded in the side by a shell,—for his conduct in this action the Duke of Wellington subsequently recommended that his Lieut. Colonelcy should be ante-dated to the date of his Dispatch, thus making him the first officer who ever received Brevet rank for services performed in the field at the head of a regiment. At Barrosa his Regiment captured the Eagle of the 8th French Regiment; and at Vittoria they captured the Banner of Marshal Jourdan. At the Nivelle he was again severely wounded. Commanded the Land Forces at Canton—for which he was made a GCB.—and during nearly the whole of the operations in China,—for which service he was created a Baronet. On the 20th Dec. 1843, with the right wing of the army of Gwalior, he defeated a Mahratta force at Manarajpore, and captured 54 guns, &c. In 1845 and 46 the Army under his Lordship's personal command defeated the Sikh Army at Moudkee, Ferozshah, and Sohraon, for which and previous services he was raised to the Peerage; and, in 1849, he was created a Viscount after his crowning victory over the Sikhs at Goojerat (Medal and Clasp). His Lordship is also a Knight of Charles the 3rd of Spain.

² Captain Leslie served in the Eastern campaign of 1854, and was severely wounded at the battle of the Alma, while serving as orderly officer to Lord Raglan (Medal and Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

1 Sir De Lacy Evans served in India in 1807, 8, 9, and 10. Portugal, Spain, and France in 1812, 13, and 14. America, part of 1814-15. Belgium and France in 1815, 16, 17, and 18. In Spain in 1833, 36, and 37. Present during the operations against Ameer Khan and the Pindarries, capture of the Mauritius, part of the retreat from Bargoa, action on the Hormuza (wounded), battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampeluna, battle of the Pyrenees, investment of Bayonne (horse shot), actions of Vic Bigorre and Tarbes battle of Toulouse (horse shot), battle of Bladenburg (two horses shot), capture of Washington, attack on Baltimore, operations before New Orleans (boarding and capture of American Flotilla),—action 25th Dec. wounded severely—unsuccessful assault, Jan. (wounded severely), battle of Quatre Bras, retreat of 17th of June, Waterloo (horse shot and one sabred), investment and capitulation of Paris. Continued on Staff of Allied Army of Occupation in France. Accepted under an allied Power (1835) command of an auxiliary British and Spanish corps of army by sanction and desire of the English Government, and by order of the King in Council. Acted, while so employed, in conjunction with the British forces (under Lord J. Hay), and through mediation of British authorities:—raising investments of San Sebastian and Bilbao, action of Artaban, capture of port and castle of Passages. Defeated the enemy in general actions on the 5th of May, 6th of June, 1st of October (wounded) 1836; also 10th and 15th of March 1837. Attacked near Hernani, 10th March, by the élite of the Carlist army, 10,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarzun, 16th May—of Yrun, by storm 17th May—of Fontarabia by capitulation, 18th May. These, and other minor affairs, were for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasionally two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though utterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 100 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication and supply. Thenceforth "The frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden"—(British Commissioners' Dispatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary corps decisively contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut. General in the national army of Spain, by licence of a British royal warrant; also, honoured by Her Majesty for these services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the government of Spain with the Grand Crosses of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. He was also at the storm and destruction of the town of Bambacon, and in the subsequent engagements with the enemy.

¹ General Wood served six years in the West Indies. Accompanied the expedition to Manzanilla in 1845. He next served the campaign of 1845-7, including the battle of Coruna. Subsequently at the siege of Flushing, he volunteered to storm the enemy's entrenchments, which he carried, and in November he was again sent to Walcheren to cover the embarkation of the troops when the island was evacuated. In 1848 he proceeded to the Mediterranean, where he served three years, and on being promoted, in 1851, to the Lieut. Colonelcy of the 84th, he joined the army in Spain. In 1854 he accompanied the 84th to America, and commanded it at the battle of Biedensberg, where he received four severe wounds, had a horse shot under him, and was obliged to surrender himself as a prisoner of war. He has received the War Medal with one Clasp for Coruna. On 14th March 1861 he was appointed Commander of the Forces in the Windward and Leeward Islands, where he served the usual period of five years.

⁴ Captain Muswurm and Lieut. Quill were present at the storm and destruction of the fortified native Mandingo town of Sabaje on the Gambia, on the 1st June 1848.

⁷ Captain Craig served as a Lieutenant in the 62nd Regt. in the Antley campaign in 1848, and was present at the battle of Ferozshah (Medal), where he was severely wounded by a cannon ball causing amputation of the right arm.
